

BLUE DOOR STUDIO PHOTOGRAPHY

“Capturing the Unexpected”

Yes, we love what we do.
 Yes, we are passionate about photography.
 But it's more than that.
 It's about getting to know you.
 It's about listening to your story.
 And it's about then being able to know what to look for,
 to know what to anticipate, in order to capture the subtle details
 that will later retell the story of your wedding,
 in a way that is unique and meaningful to you.
