Crave Catering: Mouth-Watering Cuisine, Local Ingredients

Love food and the planet? Call us. Crave Catering would love to pamper you, your guests and the earth with an exquisite, mouth-watering meal crafted from a symphony of local ingredients. Our Executive Chef is inspired by the flavors and ingredients of the Northwest, creating an array of world cuisine that mirrors your every vision, detail and budget. We respect the ingredients and the planet that has provided them and are in turn passionate about employing sustainable business practices, hand-picking our ingredients from local farmers, fishermen and artisans, thus fostering support for our community. Our staff is experienced, professional and attentive to your every last wish, allowing you and your guests to relax and enjoy the perfect party. We would love to be involved in your journey of a million memories.

"Who can two event professionals, known for green meetings, hire to cater their wedding? After a rigorous selection process, there was one answer: Crave Catering. Not only did we require impeccable service, we also wanted local, sustainable, delicious food. Guests still rave about the incredible meal and service. Crave's creativity and attention to detail made our wedding absolutely PERFECT."
