About The House of Cards

Finding the right music for your wedding or special event can be a gamble. We can stack the deck in your favor with the hip, smart, eclectic bands we represent. From French gypsy swing to booty shakin' new wave, chances are we've got the band for you. We come straight from Portland's vibrant music scene, bringing years of professional event experience to the table.

Let's Face It

A lot of people aren't used to hiring a band, and most bands aren't accustomed to the business end of things. That's where we come in. Our agency takes the guesswork and the legwork out of booking music for your special event. Being musicians ourselves, with a decade of experience in the wedding and special event market, we have faced and problem-solved every scenario imaginable. We realize that the keys to a successful event are organization, communication and coordination of the myriad details that are bound to come up.
