About the Jenkins Estate

Tualatin Hills Park & Recreation District welcomes you to this tranquil setting tucked in the wooded niche of Cooper Mountain. The revitalized 68 acre country Estate consists of natural growth areas in the perimeter, giving way to cultivated plantings and a tamed landscape of ornamental trees, shrubs, flowers and winding gravel pathways.

The Main House, built in 1912, has a full-length veranda, beamed ceilings, hardwood floors, ornate light fixtures and stone fireplaces. The refurbished 2-level Stable is a charming building with large carriage doors and hardwood floors.
