This historic property just 20 minutes west of downtown Portland is a beautiful and unique spot to hold your rehearsal dinner. Settled in the 1850's by the Imbrie family, the estate resonates with Oregon history and includes a few of the original buildings. Hold your dinner in the elegant 1866 Roadhouse itself, or perhaps stage a more casual and fun affair in the unusual Octagon Barn, one of the few such structures left in the nation. If the weather allows, we offer outdoor meadows or tree-filled glades for a lovely, under-the-sun-or-stars dinner. Our on-site catering menus include options such as ale-marinated sirloin steak, portabello mushroom ravioli, grilled salmon and more. Meet with one of our sales coordinators to discuss your options on setting, menus and more.

About McMenamins
