About Kennedy School

This former elementary school turned hotel is an incredible spot for your wedding – your event will be remembered for years to come! The historic 1915 grade school was slated for demolition until the McMenamin brothers purchased the property and renovated it back to its original charm. Today, it's a wonderful hotel and event space offering classrooms-turned-guestrooms (complete with their original chalkboards and coat closets), beautiful artwork by local artisans, the Detention and Honors Bars, an outdoor heated soaking pool and more. Your wedding will be one-of-a-kind, whether it's held indoors in the gymnasium, outdoors in the courtyard or in one of our other intriguing spots. Our on-site catering offers several menus from which to choose, including items like tournedos of beef, baked salmon, medallions of pork and more. The Kennedy School is located just minutes from downtown Portland and is convenient to the Portland International Airport.
