

Moore Creative Weddings - Rev. Roger Moore

Congratulations on your engagement. Every couple is unique, with different needs, style and preferences. Your wedding is about you, the bride and groom. You should be the center of attention. It is your day and you should feel special. Your wedding is a special moment in time and it is fun to create a ceremony that captures your special moment. The ceremony will be tailored to meet your vision for your wedding. Creative and unique weddings are always fun and your family and guests will enjoy what we create together.

I like being a part of the team for your wedding – bridal consultants, facility coordinators, caterers, florists, photographers, videographers, DJs – all working together to make your wedding flow smoothly.

I do have a sample that will give you a lot of ideas for developing your personalized ceremony. Since it is your wedding you should have a ceremony that reflects your ideas and your vision for your day.

I am an ordained minister and yet make the couple and marriage the focus of the ceremony. What you develop will be followed and you will not have any embarrassing surprises.

I do have my own portable PA system that allows the audience to hear what is being said. For a small fee I can also provide a lapel microphone for the groom so the couple can be heard when they are sharing their vows and placing the rings.

I can email you a sheet with references of vendors who will affirm my services.

Contact me and let's see if we are a good match in making your celebration a perfect day.

TESTIMONIAL

"We wanted to tell you thank you for performing our wedding ceremony for us. It was absolutely perfect, and we both really appreciated your sense of humor, kindness, and calm demeanor on our big day. We received lots of compliments on our ceremony and we owe that all to you and your help before, during and after the wedding. Thank you so much again."
