No Ordinary Affair

because no bride wants an ordinary wedding

© Devla Huss Photography

We believe that your wedding should be a true reflection you & your fiancé, so we allow your unique style & personality to become our template. After all, no two couples are alike; therefore, no two weddings should be alike.

So sit down with us over a cup of coffee and let's get to know each other. We would love to hear the details of your vision and see how best we could help you to enjoy each and every minute of your wedding day.

Our initial consultations are always free and we would love to meet you!

No Ordinary Affair ... because no bride wants an ordinary wedding.

We Love...

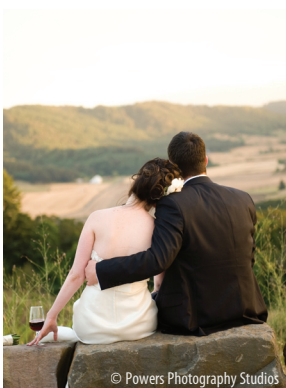

- Working with you to create a wedding that is uniquely you
- All of the communication that flies back and forth between you & us during your planning process
- Referring you to those perfect vendors who fit your unique budget, style and personality
- Watching you relax, smile & laugh on your wedding day as you create memories that will last forever

WHAT'S NEW

We are now offering 4-hour "Help Tying the Knot" workshops for brides who have chosen not to hire a planner or coordinator.
