THE OREGON
HISTORICAL SOCIETY
FOUNDED 1898

Give your wedding a place in history!

Located in the South Park blocks of downtown Portland, the Oregon Historical Society is surrounded by culture, history and beauty. The Society offers indoor and outdoor venues capable of accommodating a variety of events.

The James F. Miller Pavilion is the ideal location for an elegant downtown event with a unique museum feel. The adjacent outdoor Plaza is a lovely ceremony or reception site on its own, or can be combined with the Pavilion to create a beautiful indoor /outdoor reception.

The Broadway Terrace is the perfect setting for a ceremony or smaller reception, or as an added space for an elegant cocktail hour. Surrounded by boxwoods and encompassing a southern view of the Haas Mural, the Terrace truly emotes urban living.

The Madison Room is designed for smaller groups and is the perfect space for a rehearsal dinner or getting ready on your wedding day. Enjoy a view of the south park blocks from the Madison Room's private terrace.
