Handmade Confections  European Chocolates

Elegant favors from A Yen for Chocolate

Chocolate has uniquely represented love and romance throughout history. The ancient Mayans symbolized their commitment by exchanging cacao beans in their wedding ceremonies, and today the tradition of enjoying fine chocolates at wedding celebrations endures.

A Yen for Chocolate creates delicious and memorable confections that will delight your family, loved ones and friends. Handmade using only superior French chocolate and the freshest natural flavors, the confections are inspired by the diverse cultures Cristina Yen was exposed to growing up.

Our chocolates are always made to order to ensure freshness, and the elegant packaging is customized to the bride's style and wedding colors.

Let us help you make your most important day a celebration that everyone will fondly remember. Contact us today for a consultation.
