NEWS RELEASE

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE: October 2013

PORTLAND, Ore. – Bravo! Wedding Affair is right around the corner and will feature over 75 local wedding vendors at the Portland Art Museum. This event is designed to bring newly engaged couples together with local vendors to help plan their special day.

All four levels of the Portland Art Museum will be filled with creative displays featuring the latest trends and inspiration for all types of weddings. Engaged couples will be able to win fantastic prizes such as jewelry for both men and women, a bridal gown, cake and tuxedos. Many of these vendors will be offering booking discounts as well.

AniA Collection will be coordinating a fashion show showing the latest designs in bridal attire. AniA has donated 18 dresses to the Art Institute students with the challenge of re-working the somewhat “dated” styles into unique one-of-a-kind creations. All of these gowns will be sold after the fashion show and a major portion of the proceeds will go to charity. Tara Arnold, Mrs. Oregon 2013 will be on hand to announce the winner of this contest at the fashion show.

Admission is $15 and tickets can be purchased at www.bravowedding.com.
