

Real Wedding Submissions:

Your submission should tell a story of the couple's big day through words and photos. Submissions need to be weddings that happened in Oregon or SW Washington on or after January 1, 2013. All submissions should include:

Information:

- The Couple's Names
- Wedding Date
- Location: Venue and City, State
- All professional vendors working this wedding
- The story of the day—400+ words

Photos:

- 10-20 Photos
- Photos should include: the details, professional's work (food, stationery), unique elements, big moments, and photos of the couple
- Photos can have a watermark and are not exclusive just to Bravo
- Photos need to be sent via Dropbox or other photo sharing website- NOT through email attachments or Word Document

Submissions should be sent in a Word Document + Link to the photos to media@bravoportland.com with "Real Wedding Submission" in the subject line. Publication of the submissions will be first come, first served and there will be no more than one new wedding posted a week. There is no limit to the number of weddings one vendor can submit. All weddings will remain on our website and will be featured at least once in our monthly newsletter to brides.

By submitting a wedding, you agree Bravo! can use the submission and pictures (but is not obligated to) to post on Bravo's website, all social media sites, in the printed resource guide, and monthly newsletter to brides. By submitting these photos, you agree that you got consent from the photographer to use the photos.

If you are a vendor submitting please note:

- All vendors can submit regardless if they are a Bravo! client
- Priority will be given to current Bravo! clients
- All vendors will be given credit for their work but only Bravo! clients will have active links to their website.
